

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.622 OF 2018 IN CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.824 OF 2011

Shri Dilip Mishra for the applicant
None for the respondent

. Not on board. Taken on board.

2 The applicant claims that City and Industrial Development Corporation of Maharashtra Limited has agreed to allot a certain land to him. Temporary bail is sought to enable the applicant to execute the documents. However, the applicant has not specified the nature of documents he is required to execute and the reason why the temporary bail should be granted for that purpose. If any document is required to be executed by the applicant which does not require the presence of the applicant before any Government Officer, the Jail Authority will permit the applicant to sign any such document for facilitating allotment of land to him. If any affidavit is required to be executed, it can be done before the Jail Officer who has power to administer oath. If any registered document is to be executed, the applicant can always move this Court so that a direction can be issued to the police to bring him before the Registrar of Assurances.

3 Subject to what is observed above, the application is rejected. However, liberty as aforesaid to make application is kept open.
