Mrs Reeba Cherian	...Appellant
vs
Mr George Jacob Vengal	...Respondent.

.....
Mrs Manjula Rao I/b Deepti N. Wadkar for the Appellant.
Mr George Jacob Vengal, the Respondent, the party in person present.

.....
CORAM : K.K.TATED, &
B.P.COLABAWALLA, JJ.
JULY 11, 2018.

P.C. :

Heard Mrs Rao, learned counsel for the appellant - wife, the respondent husband - party in person is present.

2 Learned counsel for the appellant as well as the respondent - party in person submits that the matter is settled out of Court. Appellant wife and Respondent husband entered into witness box. The consent terms are filed. They admitted the contents of the consent terms. The consent terms are taken on record and marked "X" for identification. The same is accepted.

3 Both the Family Court Appeals stands disposed of with following order;

- (a) There shall be decree in terms of the consent terms;
- (b) The consent terms be treated as part and parcel of the decree;
- (c) The undertaking given by the parties in the consent terms are accepted;
- (d) The decree of divorce be passed under Section 10-A of the Divorce Act, 1869 as per clause (1) of the consent terms;

4 At this stage, Ms Rao, learned counsel for the appellant submits that as per the order dated 7th October, 2015 passed by this Court (Coram : V.M.Kanade, Dr. Shalini Phansalkar-Joshi, JJ.) they deposited sum of Rs.10,000/- in the Registry of this Court. She submits that, in view of settlement between both the parties, the appellant - wife may be permitted to withdraw this amount. The respondent - party in person has no objection for the same.

5 Hence, the Registry is directed to refund the amount of Rs.10,000/- along with accrued interest, if any, to the appellant – wife (Mrs Reeba Cherian) without any security.

6 In view of disposal of both the Family Court Appeals, all pending Civil Applications are disposed of as infructuous. No order as to costs.
