CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 1745 OF 2018
IN WRIT PETITION NO. 4202 OF 2017

Kumar Ravindra Virendra	}	Applicant versus
VPM's Thane Municipal	}
Corporation Law College and Anr.	}	Respondents

Mr. Sangram Chinnappa i/b. Kranti L. C.
for the Applicant.

Mr. Manoj J. Bhatt for respondent no. 1.

Ms. Rimi Jain i/b. Rui Rodrigues for respondent no. 2.

CORAM :- S. C. DHARMADHIKARI & SMT. BHARATI H. DANGRE, JJ.

DATE :- AUGUST 10, 2018

P.C. :-

1. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties.

2. The Civil Application is entirely misconceived. The order passed by the learned Vacation Judges does not enable the petitioner to continue his education in the second year and all that the said order permits is appearance for the said examination for that particular semester. The results of that examination are also withheld. The University does not recognise the admission of the petitioner itself. The order of the Vacation Bench is not a final order. At best that is a tentative and prima facie view of the court, which does not quash the communication from the University far from setting at naught the ordinance and the rules framed by the Bar Council of India. The application lacks bonafide. It is, therefore, dismissed.
