DATE : 1st MARCH, 2018

PC.

In view of the order passed in similar Petition, the Petition is disposed of with following observations :-

If the local police has reason to believe that some illegal activities are being conducted in the premises of the petitioner-Mandal, to unravel that, or, to immediately stop those activities, they are competent to enter the premises, without giving notice to the petitioner. That action would, nevertheless, be with due procedure of law. In other words, we would only observe that the local police are free to enter the
