

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL REVISION APPLICATION NO.8 OF 2018

Mandar Villa Co-op. Hsg. Society & Ors. ... Applicants

Vs.

Peer Karamali Shah Dargah & Ors. ... Respondents

Mr.R.A. Shaikh for the Applicants

CORAM: Mrs.MRIDULA BHATKAR, J.

DATED: JUNE 4, 2018

P.C. :

1. In this Civil Revision Application, the applicants challenge the order dated 1.8.2017 passed by the learned Presiding Office, Maharashtra State Waqf Tribunal, Aurangabad. In the order, the learned Presiding Officer has noted, “heard both sides advocates. In the interest of justice, production is allowed.” This production is challenged by the application in this Civil Revision Application.

2. By the impugned order, documents are allowed to be produced by the Presiding Officer. The relevancy and admissibility of the documents is not decided by the Presiding Officer. No ground made out for entertaining this Civil Revision Application or to interfere with the impugned order.

3. Hence, the Civil Revision Application is dismissed.
