CORAM : RANJIT MORE &
SMT.BHARATI H. DANGRE, JJ.

DATE : 31st OCTOBER 2018

P.C.

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, learned APP and learned counsel for the respondent No.2.

2. The petition is filed for quashing and setting aside the FIR bearing C.R.No.381 of 2018 registered with Kandivali Police Station at the instance of the respondent No.2 for an offence punishable under Sections 279, 338 of Indian Penal Code and 134(a) and (b) of the Motor Vehicles Act.

3. Pending investigation, parties settled their dispute amicably and in pursuant to the understanding arrived between them they have approached this Court for quashing the subject FIR by consent. The respondent no.2 accordingly filed an affidavit dated 31.10.2018. In paragraph No.4, she has given no objection. The respondent No.2 is personally present in the Court and on specific query she has made a statement that she has gone through the application and affidavit and understood the contents thereof. She specifically states that she has no objection to quash the subject FIR against the present petitioner.

4. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Narinder Singh vs. State of Punjab¹ has observed thus :-

“14. As to under what circumstances the criminal proceedings in a non-compoundable case be quashed when there is a settlement between the parties, the Court provided the following guidelines :

“Where the High Court quashes a criminal proceedings having regard to the facts that the dispute between the offender and the victim has been settled although the offences are not compoundable, it does so as in its opinion, continuation of criminal proceedings will be an exercise in futility and justice in the case demands that the dispute between the parties is put to an end and peace is restored; securing the ends of justice being the ultimate guiding factor. No doubt, crimes are acts which have harmful effect on the public and consist in wrongdoing that seriously endangers and threatens the well-being of the society and it is not safe to leave the crime-doer only because he and the victim have settled the dispute amicably or that the victim has been paid compensation, yet certain crimes have been made compoundable in law, with or without the permission of the Court.”

In the light of the aforesaid observations we have noted that the two rival parties have amicably settled dispute between them and no gainful purpose would be achieved in continuing the prosecution.

5. In the backdrop of above facts and circumstances and especially in view of law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Narinder Singh (supra), we find that no purpose would be served by keeping the criminal proceedings pending except burdening the criminal Courts which are already overburdened. In that view of the matter and in the interests of justice, the criminal proceedings are required to be quashed. However, at the same time, costs need to be saddled on the parties for using the police and judicial mechanism for settling their personal disputes.

6. Accordingly, subject FIR bearing C.R.No.381 of 2018 registered with Kandivli Police Station, Mumbai is quashed and set aside to payment of costs of Rs.10,000/-. The petitioner shall deposit the costs with Yashodhan Charitable Trust, Satara. Details of the account of Yashodhan Charitable Trust, Satara are as follows :-

Branch	:	Powai Naka, Satara
A/c. Type	:	Saving

The said amount be deposited within the period of two weeks from today and the receipt of the same be placed on record.

7. Subject to above, the criminal application stands disposed of.
