P.C.:

Heard respective counsel for the parties.

2. The attachment is still not made absolute and the proceedings are pending before the trial court. The contention that the attachment has been done without proper satisfaction can be raised before the trial court.

3. We are not inclined to deviate from the normal procedure prescribed in law in such matters.

4. Hence keeping all the contentions of petitioner open and with a leave to move the trial court for expeditious orders in this respect, we dispose of the present petitions.

(SARANG V. KOTWAL, J.) (B.P. DHARMADHIKARI, J.)
