CORAM : R. D. DHANUKA, J.

DATE : NOVEMBER 1, 2018

P.C.

1. By consent of parties, all these petitions were heard together and are being disposed of by this common order.

2. By these writ petitions, filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners have impugned the order dated 31st October, 2017 passed below the applications filed by the original claimants under S. 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 whereby the original claimants had sought to set aside the order of closing the evidence, though the matters were posted for pronouncement of judgments.

3. A perusal of record clearly indicates that both the parties had filed 'evidence close pursis' and also argued the matters on the same date. The matters were listed for pronouncement of judgments on 28.11.2018. The claimants, however, filed application thereafter for setting aside the order of closing the evidence. The said applications came to be allowed by the learned trial judge on 31.10.2017. Mr. Patil, learned counsel appearing in all the petitions for the petitioners placed reliance on the decision of this Court in Mohan Shankarrao Deshmukh Vs. Salim Abbas Khatib¹, holding that after the matter was adjourned for pronouncement of judgment, no application could have been filed under Order IX, Rule 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the purpose of recalling the order of evidence close, directing to proceed with the suit exparte. He submits that the principles laid down in the said judgment applies to the facts of this case.

4. In this case, the oral evidence was closed by filing the pursis by the parties and the matters were thereafter argued. The learned trial court directed to place the matters for pronouncement of judgment. The learned Judge could not have entertained the applications for recalling the order of closing of evidence. The principle laid down in the case of Mohan Deshmukh (supra) after adverting the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of *Arjun Singh Vs. Mohindra Kumar & Ors.*¹, applies to the facts of present cases. In my view, the order passed by the trial court thereby setting aside the order of closing the evidence after placing the matters for pronouncement of judgment, is contrary to the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Arjun Singh (supra) and this Court in the case of Mohan Deshmukh (supra). Hence, the following order.

ORDER

- (a) All the impugned orders setting aside the order of closing of evidence in the respective writ petitions are quashed and set aside. The applications filed by the respondent under S. 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 are dismissed.
- (b) The learned trial court shall pronounce the judgment in the respective matters at the earliest.

- (c) No orders as to costs.
- (d) The parties are directed to bring to the notice of the trial court this order. Trial court to act on an authenticated copy of this order.
