

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

ANTICIPATORY BAIL APPLICATION NO. 2203 OF 2017

Mohd Khalid Baig

... Applicant

V/s.

The State of Maharashtra

... Respondent

Mr. Santraj Rampyare for the Applicant.

Mr. R.M. Pethe APP for the Respondent/State.

CORAM : A.S.GADKARI, J.

DATE : 07th FEBRUARY, 2018

P.C.:

. By an Order dated 19.12.2017 while granting interim relief, the Applicant was directed to attend Investigating Officer on stipulated dates and to join the process of the investigation.

2 The learned APP on instructions from the Investigating Officer submitted that the Applicant never attended the Investigating Officer and simply got endorsement of attendance in his diary from the Station House Officer.

The learned Counsel for the Applicant tendered one diary across the bar thereby indicating that the Applicant attended the Police Station and the Station House Officer has given an endorsement to that effect. Thus, it is true that the Applicant did not attend the Investigating Officer and participated in the process of investigation.

3 As the Applicant has failed to comply with the direction as noted above, this Court is not inclined to continue the interim relief.

4 Accordingly, interim relief granted by an Order dated 19.12.2017 is vacated forthwith. As a consequence thereof, Application stands dismissed.
