DATE : 26th November 2018.

P.C.

In all these matters, the Registry has reported that the case papers are not traceable. Accordingly, the respective petitioners/ applicants are granted four weeks' time to submit a duplicate set of the case papers, like memo of C.R.A./ Petitions, impugned order etc so that the office can reconstruct the papers.

2] Notice is to be published on website requiring learned Counsel for the respective applicant/ petitioners to furnish duplicate set of case papers so as to enable the Registry to reconstruct the case papers.

3] Place all these matters on 14th January 2019. By then, if no steps are taken, then, this Court will consider whether these matters are to be dismissed for non prosecution.
