

rrpillai

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

CHAMBER SUMMONS NO. 172 OF 2018

IN

WRIT PETITION NO. 1854 OF 2012

Blossom Developers

... Applicant/Petitioner

vs.

The Tahsildar and Anr.

... Respondents

Ms. Meena Ashok Fulbhande for the Applicant.

Ms. Uma Palsuledesai, AGP for the Respondent.

CORAM : A.K. MENON, J.

DATE : 18th SEPTEMBER, 2018

P. C.

The Chamber Summons seeks to delete name of the partner of the firm on the basis that the partner has expired. However, the petition is seen to have been filed on behalf of the firm. Learned counsel for the petitioner further states that the partnership firm continues to exist and does not stand dissolved by virtue of demise of Mr. K. N. Shaikh. The Affidavit in support also records the fact that two other partners are continuing business of the firm. In the circumstances, since firm name has not undergone any change, in my view there is no question of permitting deletion of permitting any amendment. Chamber Summons is dismissed.

(A.K. MENON, J.)