P.C. :-

1. All these appeals have been on board on prior occasions. The daily board shows that the appeals have been carried by this court from the date of the institution and were listed on 12 prior occasions. When they are listed today and called out for admission, neither the appellants nor their advocate are present. Each of these appeals are, therefore, dismissed for want of prosecution. If there are any ad-interim orders, they stand vacated forthwith.

2. In the light of the dismissal of the appeals, all the pending notices of motion/applications in these appeals do not survive and stand disposed of as such.
