

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION
WRIT PETITION NO.2280 OF 2017

Imratunissa Mohamed S Qureshi	..Petitioner vs.
The Municipal Corporation of Greater Mumbai	...Respondent

Mr. V.R.Tripathi for the Petitioner.
Ms. Shital Mane for the Respondent-BMC.

CORAM : A.S. OKA & P. N. DESHMUKH, JJ.
DATE : 11th JANUARY, 2018

P.C.:

. Heard Mr. Tripathi, the learned counsel for the Petitioner. Even assuming that the contentions raised in the Petition are true, the illegalities alleged are of trivial/minor nature. A remedy available to the Petitioner is to file an appropriate proceedings in accordance with law against the persons who have carried out illegal construction. It is not a fit case to invoke writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. By keeping remedy of the Petitioner as aforesaid open, the Petition is disposed of.
