CORAM : A.K. MENON, J.

DATE : 3rd OCTOBER, 2018

P. C.

Counsel for the parties agree that the suit be referred to arbitration of a sole arbitrator. Accordingly I pass the following order by consent of parties;

- (i) The dispute between the parties is referred to Mr. D.J. Kakalia Advocate and Solicitor.
- (ii) Statement of disclosures contemplated under Section 11(8) and Section 12(1) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act shall be filed within a period of two weeks from today
- (iii) Since the affidavit in reply does not disclose any counter claim it is made clear that the plaint shall be treated as statement of claim.

- (iv) It is submitted on behalf of the plaintiff that they will not be filing any rejoinder or further pleadings. Parties may however file a compilation of documents. This process shall be completed within a period of four weeks from the date that the arbitrator enters the reference.
- (v) The tribunal shall proceed to list the matter for issues based on existing pleadings.
- (vi) The suit is disposed of in the aforesaid terms. In view of disposal of the suit, summons for judgment does not survive, summons for judgment is also disposed.
- (vii) Refund as per rules.
