P.C

1. Both counsel state that the parties have arrived at a workable arrangement and they tender minutes of order signed by the advocates. In effect, the impugned order will be complied with subject to the right of the petitioner to urge the grounds pertaining to the alleged height restrictions that future construction on the land is subjected to.
2. In the circumstances, they tender Minutes signed by the Advocates. The Minutes are taken on record.
3. There will be an Order in terms of Minutes handed in and marked 'X' for identification.
4. Petition is disposed of in above terms. It is made clear that the court has not examined the merits of the parties contentions.
