P.C.:

. Not on board. Taken on board.

1 This appeal is by the original first defendant which takes exception to the order dated 20th August 2018 passed by the learned Single Judge. Paragraph 6 of the said order indicates that the order is passed by the consent of first, second and third defendants. The submission of the learned counsel for the appellant (first defendant) is that the said defendant had never given any consent. This contention cannot go into in the appeal and the remedy of the appellant is to take out appropriate proceeding before the learned Single Judge. There is other grievance about alleged inadvertent error while mentioning the suit number in paragraph 7 of the order. Even for this purpose, the remedy is before the learned Single Judge.

2 Subject to what is observed above, we decline to entertain this appeal. However, remedies of the appellant before the learned Single Judge are kept open. All contentions on merits are kept open.
