Advocate for Respondent

The six installments towards interest have been agreed to be paid every month beginning 20th August 2018 and ending on 20th February 2019.

3 Mr. Abhishek Choudhary, Director of respondent company assures this Court for himself personally, on behalf of the other Directors of the company and the company that the amounts will be paid on the dates mentioned in the consent terms. This assurance is taken as further undertaking to this Court. It is made clear that if there is any default, petitioner will be at liberty to execute this order as a decree of this Court against not only respondent company but Mr. Abhishek Choudhary in his personal capacity and all the other Directors of the company.

4 Since this petition has not been advertised, petition stands disposed with liberty to petitioner to approach this Court for revival of the petition and for further orders in case there is a default.

5 Respondent company has filed First Appeal bearing stamp no.13519 of 2018. Though it is not part of the assignment of this Court, the counsel by consent request that this Court may take up the First Appeal for hearing now so that respondent, who is appellant in First Appeal, can withdraw the same.

6 Therefore, by consent First Appeal stamp No.13519 of 2018 is taken up for hearing and dismissed as withdrawn. Civil application nos.2147 of 2018 and 2148 of 2018 also stand disposed. Refund of court fees, if any, in accordance with rules.

7 Mr. Joseph, counsel for petitioner states that petitioner will not execute the decree, that it has obtained from the City Civil Court at Dindoshi in Summary Suit No.373 of 2016, so long as the installments are being paid as per the consent terms. Statement accepted.
