CIVIL APPLN. (O) NO. 217 OF 2018

Heard.

For the reasons stated in the application, the delay in filing the miscellaneous civil application is condoned. The civil application is allowed and disposed of.

M. C. A ST. NO. 1837 OF 2018

The learned counsel for the applicants states that though there was no similarity in the decided case and the present case that was disposed of on the basis of the judgment in the decided case, on the statement made by the learned counsel for the parties, the order dismissing the writ petition was passed and a direction was issued against the applicants to place the name of the non-applicant in the waiting list and appoint the non-applicant as GDS employee/Gramin Dak Sevak by giving preference to him. It is stated that in the instant case, the non-applicant/original respondent had put in only thirteen and half months of service and this fact was not brought to the notice of this court.

We are not inclined to review the order dated 08/08/2017 as while dismissing the writ petition, we had directed the applicants/original petitioners to place the name of the non-applicant/original respondent in the waiting list and appoint him as a GDS employee/Gramin Dak Sevak, if all the conditions are satisfied. If according to the applicants, the conditions are not satisfied, a case for review cannot be made out and an appropriate decision may be taken while considering the claim of the non-applicant/original respondent for his appointment after his name is placed in the waiting list.

Hence, we dismiss the review application.
