CORAM : B.P.DHARMADHIKARI AND
Z.A.HAQ, JJ.

DATED : JULY 17, 2018.

1. We have heard Advocate Shri Deshpande for the petitioner, Advocate Shri Thakkar with Ravindra Bhanudas Munde and Advocate Ms Ahirkar for the respondent No.2.

2. The facts on record show that it is beyond capacity of Shri Ravindra Bhanudas Munde to discharge the liability. His immovable property is already attached. Today he has tendered an affidavit mentioning that he is ready and willing to co-operate in auction of that property and through proceeds thereof the petitioners can proportionately reimburse themselves.

3. We are, therefore, satisfied with the bonafides of Shri Ravindra Bhanudas Munde. The affidavit filed by him is taken on record as Exh.A. In view of the said affidavit, we take on record the undertaking and accordingly also direct Shri Munde to continue to co-operate during auction process.

4. With these directions and keeping other contentions and remedies of the petitioners open, we dispose of the present petition.

5. Needless to mention that the petitioners are free to proceed further and initiate steps for auction of the attached properties as per law.

6. The properties shall continue under attachment till they are auctioned and issuance of Sale Certificate by the competent Court/Authority in favour of the successful purchaser.
