Court's or Judge's orders

Shri N.G. Jetha, Counsel for the applicant.

CORAM : ROHIT B. DEO, J.

DATED : 17-07-2018

In the first session, Shri N.G. Jetha, learned Counsel for the applicant was heard at length.

2. At the request of the learned Counsel, the revision was posted in the second session to enable the learned Counsel to make a statement whether the applicant is ready to deposit the entire arrears of maintenance due and payable to the non-applicants as per the order dated 09-4-2018 rendered by the Judge, Family Court-3, Nagpur.

3. I have carefully perused the order impugned. Prima facie, there is absolutely nothing wrong in the order impugned. However, since the learned Counsel is insisting that notices be issued to the non-applicants, I am inclined to direct the applicant to deposit the entire arrears of maintenance due and payable as per the order impugned as a condition of issuance of notice.

4. The applicant to deposit the entire arrears and to regularly pay the monthly maintenance to the non-applicants.

5. The arrears shall be deposited within a period of two weeks. If the arrears are deposited and the applicant files an affidavit to the effect that the entire arrears are deposited, the registry to issue notices to the non-applicants, returnable in two weeks after such deposit.

6. If the arrears are not deposited, the revision shall stand rejected without further reference to Court.
