... Respondents

Writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India filed praying for issuance of a Writ of Habeas Corpus calling for the records in connection with the order of detention passed by the second respondent dated 24.04.2018 in S.C.No.31/2018 against the petitioner's husband Raman @ Ramu, Male aged 33 years, S/o.Muniyappa, who is confined at Central Prison, Salem and set aside the same and direct the respondents to produce the detenu before this Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mr.D.Balaji

For Respondents: Mr.M.Mohamed Riyaz

(The order of the Court was made by C.T.SELVAM, J)

Petitioner is the wife of the detenu Raman @ Ramu S/o.Muniyappa, who has been branded as a "Goonda" under the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982 and detained under order of the second respondent passed in S.C.No.31/2018 dated 24.04.2018.

2. The alleged ground case has been registered against the detenu in Crime No.69 of 2018 on the file of Sipcot Police Station, for offences under Sections 302 and 380 IPC. Aggrieved by the order of detention, the present writ petition has been filed.

3. Heard learned counsel for petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for respondent. Perused the materials on record.

4. The detaining authority while noticing that the detenu was remanded to judicial custody and lodged at Central Prison, Salem, as a remand prisoner till 06.04.2018 and the remand has been extended upto 07.05.2018 and has not moved any bail application in the ground case, he had informed that in a similar case bail has been granted by the District and Sessions Court, Dharmapuri and therefore, there was a real possibility of his coming out on bail and if he comes out on bail, he will indulge in further activities which will be prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. This Court, under orders in H.C.P.No.1520 of 2017 dated 04.12.2017, has held thus:

'5(ii). ... The Detaining Authority, according to us, had wrongly entertained an apprehension that the detenu would be released on bail, by adverting to the fact that in similar cases, bail was granted. According to us, this is not have been taken as the basis to come to such a conclusion. In granting bail the Court inter alia takes into account several aspects most of which are case specific. Those would include the gravity of the offence, the ability to suborn witnesses and the likelihood of the accused fleeing from justice. The "similarity case" yardstick applied by the Detaining Authority, based on the provisions of law under which an accused is booked, cannot be a satisfactory indicator for coming to the conclusion that the likelihood of the detenu being enlarged on bail was real and imminent.'

We are in agreement with the above finding. For the said reason, the order under challenge would have to fall.

The Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the impugned detention order passed by the second respondent, detaining the detenu Raman @ Ramu S/o.Muniyappa in S.C.No.31/2018 dated 24.04.2018 is quashed. The above named detenu is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, unless his custody is required in connection with any other case.
