The prayer for extension of time has been made by the petitioner-Management in each of the miscellaneous petition.

2. It appears that this Court, on 13.3.2015, while staying the operation of the order, have directed the petitioner-Management to deposit 25% of the back wages in each of the case to the credit of I.D.Nos.731 of 2001, 28 of 2002 and 108 of 2006 respectively, within three weeks. But the same was not complied with. Thereafter, at the first instance, on 22.3.2017, Mr.P.Paramasiva Doss, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner sought for six more weeks to comply the order. Accordingly, a further period of six more weeks from 22.3.2017 was granted. Even then, the order was not complied with. Hence, the present miscellaneous petitions are filed seeking extension of time for compliance of the order.

3. Though this Court is not inclined to grant further extension of time, but taking a lenient view of the matter, it is directed that if 50% of the back wages in each case have to be deposited to the credit of I.D.Nos.731 of 2001, 28 of 2002 and 108 of 2006 respectively, pending on the file of the III Additional Labour Court, Madras High Court, Campus, Chennai, i.e., 25% of the back wages in each case by 20.3.2018 and another 25% of the back wages in each case by the end of April 2018, the Awards of the Labour Court shall stand stayed. Further, it is made clear that no further extension of time shall be granted in this regard.

4. With the above direction, the miscellaneous petitions shall stand disposed of.
