Despite directions given by this Court earlier on various dates, the appellant has not appeared before this Court to enable this Court to assess the just compensation payable to the appellant.

2.Even today, the appellant has not appeared before this Court. Learned Counsel for the appellant informs this Court that despite his best efforts, he is not unable to contact the appellant.

3.In the circumstances, it can be inferred that the appellant is not interested in prosecuting this appeal. Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed for default. No costs.
