This Tax Case Appeal has been filed by the Revenue calling in question the correctness of the order passed by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, Madras 'D' Bench, Chennai, dated 25.7.2005 made in ITA No.1253/Mds/2002, by raising the following substantial question of law:

"In the light of the decision of the Honourable Supreme Court reported in (2005) 278 ITR 546, Britannia Industries Limited v. CIT, whether or not under section 37(4) of the Income Tax Act the hiring charges/rent paid for Guest House, would amount to maintenance of a residential accommodation in the nature of Guest House?"

2. When the matter is taken up for admission, the learned Standing Counsel brought to our notice the Circular instruction issued by the Central Board of Direct Taxes vide Circular No.3/2018 dated 11.7.2018 wherein it is stipulated that appeals shall not be filed/pursued by the Department before the High Court in cases where the tax effect does not exceed Rs.50 lakhs.

3. In the instant case, the tax effect is less than the monetary limit imposed and therefore, the appeal is dismissed as not pressed, preserving the substantial question of law for determination in an appropriate case.
