PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the records relating to the order of detention NO.310/BCDFGISSSV/2018 dated, 08/05/2018 passed by the 2nd respondent and to quash the same and also to direct the detenu Gavaskar@Guru, S/O.Annadurai, who is presently detained in the Central Prison, Puzhal, Chennai to be produced before this Hon`ble court and set at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mr.S.Mareeswaran

For Respondents: Mr.M.Mohamed Riyaz
Additional Public Prosecutor

[Order of the Court was made by C.T.SELVAM, J]

Petitioner is the mother of the detenu viz., Gavaskar @ Guru S/o.Annadurai, who has been branded as a "Goonda" under the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982 and detained under order of the second respondent passed in No.310/BCDFGISSSV/2018 dated 08.05.2018.

2. The detenu came to adverse notice in the following cases:-

<https://hcservices.ecourts.gov.in/hcservices/>

Sl.No .	Police Station and Crime No.	Sections of Law
1.	K-10 Koyambedu Police Station, Crime No.1512/2017	392, 506(ii) IPC
2.	K-11 CMBT Police Station, Crime No.348/2018	379 IPC
3.	K-10 Koyambedu Police Station Crime No.448/2018	392 IPC

The alleged ground case has been registered against the detenu in Crime No.472/2018 on the file of Inspector Police, K-10 Koyambedu Police Station for offences under sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 336, 427, 392 r/w 397 and 506(ii) IPC. Aggrieved by the order of detention, the present writ petition has been filed.

3. We have heard learned counsel for petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

4. Though many grounds have been raised in the petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, confines his argument only in respect of non-application of mind on the part of the detaining authority in passing the order of detention.

5. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the detenu was arrested in the ground case in Cr.No.472/2018 on 16.04.2018; whereas the detention order was passed on 08.05.2018, i.e. Nearly after a lapse of 22 days. This inordinate delay in passing of detention order would vitiate the same. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the petitioner placed reliance on the judgment of a Division Bench of this Court reported in 2005 MLJ (Cr1.) 752 (Ramesh v. District Collector and District Magistrate, Tiruchirapalli District and another). Hence, on the above grounds, the detention order is liable to be set aside.

6. Further, the Grounds of Detention would reveal that one adverse case has been registered against the detenu and a ground case was registered against him in Cr.No.472/2018 for offences u/s 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 336, 427, 392 r/w 397 and 506(ii) IPC. Admittedly, the detenu has not moved any bail application in the ground case and he has moved bail application in the adverse case and the same is pending before the V Metropolitan Magistrate, Allikulam, Chennai-3 in Cr1.M.P.No.2212/2018. Therefore, the probability of release of the petitioner imminently does not arise. Hence, we are inclined to set aside the detention order. Though the which an accused was granted bail, the facts involved in those cases are different. The principle of similarity cannot be applied mechanically. Normally, bails are granted based on the facts and circumstances of each case. Therefore, similar case plea, cannot be taken into consideration. Hence, there is no material to substantiate that there is real possibility of the detenu coming out on bail and the said order was passed without application of mind. It is to be noted that the detenu was arrested in the ground case in Cr.No.472/2018 on 16.04.2018, whereas the detention order was passed on 08.05.2018, i.e. after a lapse of 22 days. This inordinate delay in passing of detention order would vitiate the same. Learned counsel for the petitioner has rightly placed reliance on the decision in Ramesh's case (cited supra) wherein this Court has held as follows:

3. It is brought to our notice by the learned Government advocate that the analyst report was received on 06.12.2014 and the doctor has issued certificate on 07.12.2014. Even in the counter affidavit filed by the first respondent, it is stated that the sponsoring authority has submitted his affidavit only on 15.01.2015. When the sponsoring authority is in possession of the analyst report and the doctor's report even on 06.12.2014 and 07.12.2014, there is no proper explanation for submitting his affidavit till 15.01.2015 for invoking the provisions of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. Even thereafter, the impugned detention order was passed only on 27.02.2015, i.e. After five weeks of receipt of the affidavit from the sponsoring authority. Though the detaining authority has filed a counter affidavit, there is no explanation for the undue delay in passing the impugned order.

4. In this regard, learned counsel for the petitioner relied on unreported decision of this Court rendered in H.C.P. No.1149 of 1995, dated 13.12.1995. In similar circumstances, after pointing out the unexplained delay between the date of submission of the affidavit by the sponsoring authority and the detention order, the Division Bench of this Court has concluded thus:

"Such delays tend to have an affect of snapping the link between prejudicial activity and passing of preventive orders....."

7. In view of the above decision rendered by the Division Bench of this Court, this Court is of the view that the detention order is unsustainable in law on the ground of inordinate and unexplained delay in passing the detention order and the same is liable to be set aside.

8. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in No.310/BCDFGISSSV/2018 dated 08.05.2018, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, namely, Gavaskar @ Guru, son of Annadurai, aged about 32 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
