O R D E R

This criminal original petition has been filed to direct respondents 1 and 2 to pass an order allowing the petitioner to operate the bank accounts, viz., A/c Nos.(a) 912010014639295, (b) 912020008214115, (c) 911010023999264, (d) 911010058239487, (e) 912020003418354, (f) 911020003773913, (g) 911010031209063, (h) 911020003554806 and (i) 911020064848458 held with Axis Bank, Anna Nagar Branch.

2. The petitioner herein is facing prosecution in C.C.Nos.4479 of 2017 and 4984 of 2018 before the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Allikulam, for the offences under Sections 420 r/w 120-B, 409 and 109 IPC. The allegation against the petitioner is that he had collected money from various persons by floating certain Schemes and had cheated them. During the course of investigation, the police had frozen certain Bank accounts related to the petitioner and his concerns under the provisions of the Criminal Law Amendment Ordinance, 1944. Under such circumstances, the petitioner is before this Court with the above prayer.

3. Heard Mr.I.P.Yesudoss, party-in-person, Mr.C.Iyyapparaj, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the first respondent-State and Mr.R.Venkatavarathan, learned counsel for the second respondent.

4. Today, Mrs.Deepa Issac, Branch Operation Manager, Axis Bank, Anna Nagar Branch is present.

5. The police have filed a counter affidavit, wherein, it is stated as follows:

"3. Further I submit that all the amount which was collected from the members of WSHG has been deposited in various accounts including Aphro Trust and Aphro Financial (P) Ltd. The petitioner/accused has diverted all the defaulted money in various accounts and also purchased a lot of immovable properties i.e., house sites, Agriculture land and also constructed two house buildings in his name and Devi's name. None of the properties have been purchased in the name of Aphro Trust, it shows the intention of the petitioner/accused to dilute the money in his name, in Devi's name and his brother Selva Durai's name. While getting the G.O.Ms.No.132 dt.09.02.2016. There is no contradiction or any violation since the money which was frozen by the investigating officer wholly collected from the poor public only.

4. I further submit that, after getting the G.O. Ms.No.132/2016 Home XIX Police Department dated 09.02.2016, necessary petition along with the order of the above said G.O.Ms.No.132, was filed before the Hon'ble Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai, with a prayer to pass an order of Ad-interim attachment of the movable properties mentioned in the schedule of property u/s 3 & 4 of Criminal Law Amendment Ordinance Act-1944. Further obtained an order of Ad-Interim attachment from the said Hon'ble Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai on 14.09.2016 in Crl.M.P.No.338 of 2016 in Crl.O.P.No.1/2006, accordingly the Hon'ble Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai appreciated the matter and admitted the affidavit and pronounced the following order "I am of the opinion that there exist the prima facie grounds to believe that the respondents namely M/s Aphro Financial (P) Ltd., IPEE Enterprises, Chennai Managaratchi Reporter, I.P.Yesudoss, Aphro Trust, IPEE Real Estate, P.Amudharaj and S.Devi, have committed scheduled offence. Hence Ad-Interim attachment is ordered." The version of petitioner/accused I.P.Yesudoss does not arise, since there is no wrong facts have been submitted to get the government order for the Ad-Interim attachment of proper.

7. I further submits that I am advised to submit that an order of attachment is passed by the Hon'ble Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai under the Criminal Law Amendment Ordinance Act-1944 against which this Criminal Original Petition is not maintainable. (The Hon'ble Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, posted the next hearing on 20.07.2018 for argument).

Thus, from the above, it is clear that these bank accounts have been frozen vide G.O.Ms.No.132, Home (Police XIX) Department dated 09.02.2016.

6. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor contended that this Court, under Section 482 Cr.P.C., cannot order de-freezing of the said accounts, since the remedy available to the petitioner is before the Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, where the attachment proceedings are pending.

7. In the opinion of this Court, what have been attached are the amounts lying in the accounts and as rightly submitted by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, this Court cannot issue any directions with regard to the disbursal of the amounts lying in the said accounts and it is for the authority under the Ordinance to deal with the amounts lying in the said accounts and pass suitable orders. However, what the petitioner is seeking is permission to operate those accounts. In other words, he is not praying for disbursal of the amounts in those accounts to him and his prayer is for permission to operate those accounts.

8. On instructions, learned counsel for the second respondent submitted that out of the nine accounts mentioned in the petition, the first account is a savings bank account in the name of the petitioner; the second account is a current account in the name of the petitioner; the third account is a savings bank account in the name of the petitioner; the fourth account is a savings bank account in the name of the petitioner; the fifth account is a current account in the name of Chennai Managaratchi Reporter; the sixth account is a current account in the name of Chennai Managaratchi Reporter; the seventh accounts is a savings bank account in the name of Aphro Trust; the eighth and ninth accounts are current accounts in the name of IPEE Enterprise. He further submitted that apart from the above nine accounts, there is a Fixed Deposit account bearing A/c No.912040063529894 in the name of I.P.Yesudoss, which has been renewed from time to time and the last renewal was on 06.05.2018, where, a sum of Rs.6,22,073/- is available.

9. It is contended at the Bar that most of the accounts are not in his individual name, but in the name of some business entities. There appears to be much force in the above submission and therefore, this Court cannot pass a blanket order permitting I.P.Yesudoss to operate all the nine accounts.

10. On instructions, learned counsel for the Bank submitted that a total amount of Rs.1,54,13,000/- is available with the Axis Bank.

11. This Court directs Axis Bank, Anna Nagar Branch, to create a single Fixed Deposit account by combining the amounts lying in the aforesaid nine accounts and the amount in the Fixed Deposit A/c No. 912040063529894 for a period of three years in the name of the Registrar, Small Causes Court, Chennai, after deducting TDS and pre-closure charges, within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and hand over the original Fixed Deposit receipt to the Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai. The Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai shall retain the Fixed Deposit amount for the purpose of disbursal to the claimants. Thereafter, the petitioner is permitted to operate any one of the Savings Bank Accounts, on submitting the Know Your Customer documents to the Manager, Axis Bank, Anna Nagar Branch.

12. As regards account nos.5 to 9, liberty is given to the entities in whose name the accounts are, to move the Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai for permission to operate the accounts. On such application being made, the learned Chief Judge, Small Causes Court, Chennai, shall order notice to the concerned Bank and the Police and after hearing them, shall pass orders in accordance with law. It is made clear that freezing of the amounts in the account is different and distinct from permission to operate the account.

Accordingly, this petition stands disposed of.
