The Mandamus issued by the learned Single Judge to the appellants to regularise the services of the respondent on completion of 10 years of service from the date of his initial appointment is under challenge in this intra court appeal.

2. The challenge is mainly on the ground that the government order relied on by the learned single Judge is not applicable to Part Time employees.

3. The learned Government Advocate by producing a copy of the judgment dated 10 July 2014, in W.A.Nos.2911 of 2012 etc., batch, submitted that the issue is covered by the said judgment. According to the learned Government Advocate, the Division Bench set aside the orders passed by the learned single Judges of this Court directing regularisation of Part Time employees.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the respondent.

5. The learned single Judge by placing reliance on the Government Order in G.O.Ms.No.22 P & AR Department, dated 28 February, 2006 directed regularisation of the services of the respondent. The respondent was working as Part Time Sweeper. The learned single Judge extended the benefits of the Government Order to the respondent. When similar issue came up before the Division Bench in W.A.Nos.2911 of 2012 etc., batch, the Division Bench allowed the appeals filed by the Government and set aside the direction issued by the learned single Judges of this Court for regularisation of Part Time employees.
