2.This Writ Petition is directed against the old order dated 03.08.2015 passed by the Inspector of Labour, Coimbatore, the first respondent herein, taking various grounds and one among the ground says that when their being any relationship of employer employee between the petitioner and the respondent and also overlooking the fact that all the workmen / employees are working, the respondents 2 to 17 are working under the contract basis, the first respondent has wrongly passed the order.

3. But, this Court is not inclined to entertain the said claim made by the petitioners. The reason is that when the first respondent has passed the order impugned on 03.08.2015, finding fault in support of questioning the correctness of the impugned order, it is not found anywhere in the affidavit filed in support of the petitioners even one word of explanation leave alone the sufficient cause.
