Common Prayer: Writ Petitions filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying to issue a Writ of Certiorarified Mandamus, to call for the records in pursuant to the impugned order issued by the 2nd respondent in proceeding DGE&T-19(4)/2011-CD-PT dated 18.11.2013 and quash the same and consequently direct the respondents to conduct the All India Trade Test under Non-Semester Pattern for the academic year 2013-2014 i.e., for the trainees admitted for August 2013 batch and permanently abolish the break system for the Petitioner Institutions.

For Petitioner :Mr.R.Prem Narayan
For Respondents :M/s.J.Madana Gopal Rao

COMMON ORDER

All these writ petitions have been filed to quash the order dated 18.11.2013 passed by the second respondent and to direct the respondents to conduct the All India Trade Test under Non-Semester Pattern for the academic year 2013-2014 for the trainees admitted in August 2013 batch and permanently abolish the break system for the petitioner Institutions.

2.However, when the matters were taken up for consideration, the learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that it would suffice, if the petitioners are permitted to approach the authorities concerned by way of a fresh representation indicating their grievances and on such submission, the authorities concerned may be directed to dispose of the same.

3.The learned counsel for the respondents has no serious objection in granting such relief to the petitioners.

4.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court permits the petitioners to submit a fresh representation indicating their grievances along with a copy of this order to the authorities concerned within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On such submission, the authorities concerned shall consider the said representation and pass appropriate orders on merits and in accordance with law, after affording an opportunity of personal hearing to the petitioners, within a period of six weeks thereafter.

5. Accordingly, all these writ petitions stand disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
