C O M M O N O R D E R

The learned counsel for the writ petitioners brought to the notice of this Court that the writ petitioners claim refund of excess tax paid to the Department. It is contended that the excess tax amounts paid have been refunded to the writ petitioners. Thus, no further adjudication is required to be undertaken in respect of the grounds raised in these writ petitions. Accordingly, the writ petitions stand closed. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
