For R1 in all Rev.Applns. : Mr. G.T.Subramanian

COMMON ORDER

Heard the learned counsel for the revision petitioners and the learned counsel for the respondents who has taken notice and made a submission opposing the review petition.

2 The sum and substance of the review petition and pursuant to the judgment of this Court confirming the judgment of the Courts below and this Court finds that there is no ground to review the order passed by this Court on 17.02.2017.

3 It is contended by the learned counsel for the appellants, who are the review petitioners herein that, subsequent to the judgment of this Court, some of the parties/respondents are alienating the suit property which actually by virtue of this Court order vest with the State.

4 It is needless to look into events, which had happened pendent lite or subsequent to the passing of the decree. It is suffice to make it clear that by virtue of the decree passed by the Trial court and the same being confirmed in Second Appeal by this Court, the Status Quo Ante as on day prior to passing of re conveyance order, which is marked as Ex.A3 dated 14.02.1995 is restored. With these observation, the Review Petition is disposed of.
