ORDER
(DELIVERED BY DR. S.VIMALA, J.)

The second respondent, District Collector and District Magistrate, Krishnagiri District, clamped an order of detention on 11.03.2018 as against Sakthivel, S/o.Thangavel, as the said authority arrived at the subjective satisfaction that the said detenu is a 'Black Marketer' and he has to be detained under Section 3 (1) of the Prevention of Black Marketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980 (Central Act No.7 of 1980), with a view to preventing him from acting prejudicial to the interest of public health and public order.

2. Challenging the order of detention, the father of the detenu has filed the present Habeas Corpus Petition.

3. Heard Mr.G.Arul Murugan, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr.R.Prathap Kumar, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents.

4. It is contended by the learned counsel for the petitioner that there is a delay in considering the representation and this has rendered the detention illegal. Learned Addl. Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents submits that though there is a delay of 22 days, but the said delay in no way vitiates the order of detention. Though such a contention is advanced, however, no explanation has been adduced by the respondents explaining the delay.

5. In Rashid Kapadia v. Medha Gadgil, (2012 (11) SCC 745), the Supreme Court had occasion to consider the effect of delay in considering the representation and in that context held as under :-

"13.It is well settled that the right of a person, who is preventively detained, to make a representation and have it considered by the authority concerned as expeditiously as possible, is a constitutional right under Article 22(5). Any unreasonable and unexplainable delay in considering the representation is held to be fatal to the continued detention of the detenu. The proposition is too well settled in a long line of decisions of this Court. We do not think it necessary to examine the authorities on this aspect, except to take note of a couple of judgments where the principle is discussed in detail. They are: Mohinuddin v. District Magistrate, Beed [(1987) 4 SCC 58 : 1987 SCC (Cri) 674] and Harshala Santosh Patil v. State of

Maharashtra [(2006) 12 SCC 211 : (2007) 1 SCC
(Cri) 680].”

6. In view of the above proposition, the delay in considering the representation submitted by the petitioner, which has not been explained properly, has vitiated the order of detention. The delay is fatal to the order of detention and this has rendered the detention illegal.

8. On the above ground alone, the order of detention is quashed. The habeas corpus petition is allowed. The detenu, T.Sakthivel, S/o.P.Thangavel, is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, unless his custody is otherwise required in any other case.
