Respondent

Civil Revision Petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, to allow this revision petition and thereby set aside the order passed by the XIX Addl. Judge, City Civil Court, Chennai in C.M.A. No.77 of 2017, dated 09.11.2017 confirming the order made in I.A. No.3450 of 2017 in O.S. No.1211 of 2017 passed by II Assistant Judge, CCC, Chennai, dated 19.08.2017.

For petitioners : M/s.L.Chandrakumar
For respondent : Mr.T.Sivagnana Sambandam

ORDER

09.11.2017 by allowing the revision petition and by setting aside the order passed by the trial Court and confirming the order made in I.A. No.3450 of 2017.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioner was elected as the President of the Second Respondent association. Therefore, at the time of the admission of the Civil Revision Petition, the Interim stay has been granted by this Court. The respondent has filed the vacate stay petition in the aforesaid Civil Revision Petition.

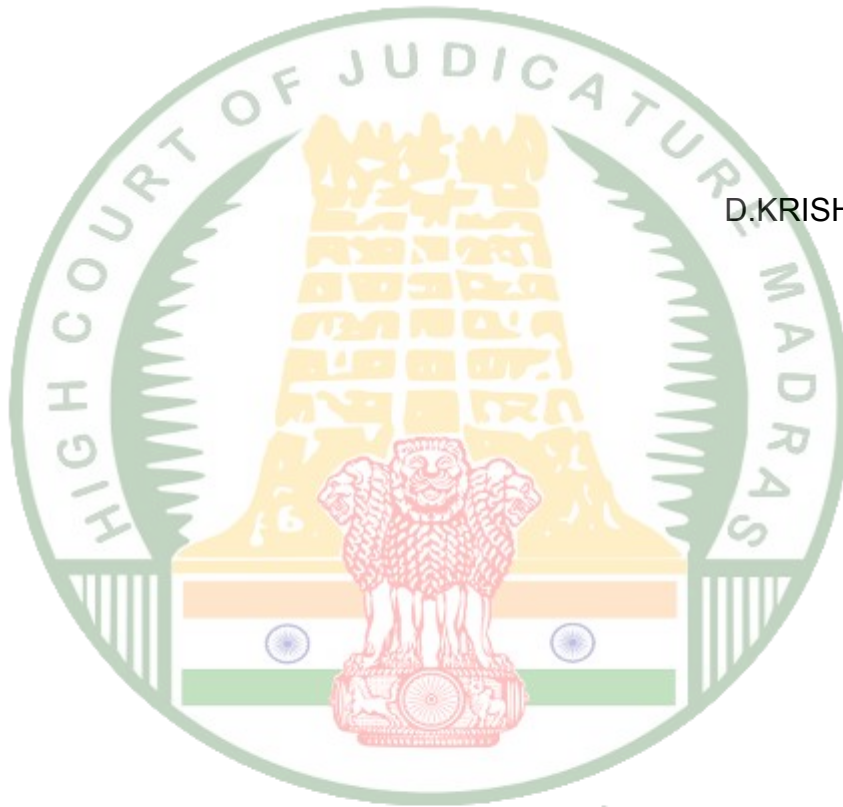

3. At the time of the hearing, the learned counsel for the respondent would further submit that the tenure of the office bearer of the second respondent association has come to an end and results were declared on 12.02.2017. Therefore, nothing survives for adjudication in the present Civil Revision Petition and it becomes, infructuous. According to the learned counsel for the respondent, even the relief sought for in the suit also becomes infructuous as the election for the period from 2017-18.

4. In the light of the above submission, the Civil Revision Petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is also closed.
