ORDER

(Order of the court was made by HULUVADI G.RAMESH, J.)

Heard the learned Senior Counsel appearing for the appellant, Mr.N.Ramesh, learned counsel, who takes notice on behalf of the first respondent and Mr.Syed Mustafa learned Special Government Pleader, who takes notice on behalf of Government of Puducherry.

2. It appears that the writ petitioner, an Assistant Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, who is said to be aggrieved against the action on the part of the authority in non-considering his candidature for the promotion to the post of Deputy Commissioner of Commercial Taxes in the Union Territory of Puducherry, has approached the Central Administrative Tribunal and as against the order passed by the Tribunal in declining to grant the interim relief sought for, the writ petitioner has knocked the doors of this court.

3. It further appears though the interim relief was declined by the Tribunal, only for want of constitution of Division Bench of the Central Administrative Tribunal, there is a delay in taking up the main case and only during the first of week of every month, another Member is sitting and taking up the cases. Such being the case, in the interest of justice, we request the Tribunal to take up the main case itself in the first week of July and dispose of the same at the earliest to facilitate the parties to take further action. In the meanwhile, counter shall be filed in the main case before the Tribunal to have proper adjudication in the matter. The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs. The connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
