her husband and son owned land in S.Nos. 842/2, 842/3, 842/4, 842/5 and 842/6 in Mosur Village, Arakonam Taluk, Vellore District, measuring 7.37 acres and they have decided to develop the same by forming a layout. In this regard, they have submitted an application along with layout plan and necessary documents to the President of Mosur Panchayat to be forwarded to the first respondent.

3. The petitioner has further stated that they have furnished all the required documents to the first respondent. By a letter dated 03.06.2013, the second respondent had returned the application for want of some more particulars, which were also furnished to the first respondent on 13.07.2013. Since, no action was taken, present writ petition.

4. Mr. T. S. Baskaran, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner after receiving the letter dated 03.06.2013, had furnished all the necessary documents to the first respondent, but subsequently there is no progress. Further, after filing this writ petition, a communication has been sent stating that the application is returned.

5. Mr. B. Anand, learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents, based on instructions, submitted that the application of the petitioner was returned by the second respondent seeking some more particulars from the petitioner. Therefore, the first respondent sent a letter to the petitioner on 03.06.2013, insisted of taking back the entire application and resubmit with required particulars, the petitioner has come to this Court. It is further submitted that the entire papers are with the first respondent and if the application is resubmitted, it would be considered in accordance with law.

6. In the light of the above facts and submissions made by the learned counsels, the petitioner is directed to get back the application from the first respondent, within a period of two weeks and resubmit the application to the first respondent, after complying the defects. On such compliance the respondents shall take appropriate action and pass orders on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks there from.

7. With the above directions, this writ petition is disposed of. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
