By consent of both parties, the main Writ Petition is taken up for disposal.

2. The petitioner is facing domestic enquiry. During the process of domestic enquiry, he submitted a book of accounts as document. The enquiry officer had refused to receive the same. He should give reasons for whatever decision he takes in writing. This decision should be taken on or before 13.06.2018, the next hearing date of the enquiry. The enquiry can proceed.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner is also permitted to forward the representation dated 05.05.2018 along with books of accounts and copy of this order directly to the enquiry officer.
