J U D G M E N T

Counsel for the respondents present.

2. No representation for the appellant, despite the matter being called twice. As seen from the notes paper, it is found that repeatedly the matter had been adjourned at the request of the appellant's counsel. Despite the same, the counsel for the appellant has not evinced interest to make submissions. In such view of the matter, there is no purpose in keeping the Second Appeal further pending. Appellant called absent.

3. In the light of the above position, the second appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution with costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition, if any, is closed.
