O R D E R

The limited prayer made in this writ petition is to issue a mandamus directing the respondents to provide the petitioner with a gun man police security round the clock.

2. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is facing serious threat to his life from various unknown persons. Hence, this writ petition.

3. Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents, on instructions from one C. Sam Vincent, Inspector of Police, in-charge of Shankar Nagar Police Station/fourth respondent, submitted that even after filing this writ petition, the petitioner was provided with police protection as and when required. He further submitted that there is no material available or produced to show that the petitioner is facing such threat. However, he submitted that if the petitioner approaches the fourth respondent with a fresh representation enclosing all the required materials, the same would be considered.

4. Recording the submissions so made by the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents, the petitioner is granted liberty to approach the fourth respondent with a fresh representation enclosing all the required materials in support of his claim and on such approach, the fourth respondent shall consider the same and pass appropriate orders, on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks. No costs.

5. This writ petition stands disposed of in the above terms. No costs.
