... Respondents

Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to issue a Writ of Mandamus directing the second respondent to consider the petitioners' application as annexed to the 'type set' for allotment of tenements which are under their occupation for years together in compliance of the statutory provisions enjoined upon the second respondent.

For Petitioners : Mr.A.Prabhakaran

For R1 : Mr.R.V. Babu

For R2 : Mr.V.Ragavachari

O R D E R

The petitioners have filed this writ petition for a mandamus directing the second respondent to consider their application for allotment of tenements which are under their occupation for years together in compliance with the statutory provisions enjoined upon the second respondent.

2.However, when the matter was taken up for consideration, the learned counsel for the petitioners fairly submitted that due to efflux of time, the petitioners may be given liberty to approach the authority concerned with a fresh representation to ventilate their grievances, for which, the learned counsel appearing for the respective respondents have no serious objection.

3.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the parties, this Court permits the petitioners to submit a fresh representation to the authority concerned within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On such submission, the authority concerned is directed to consider the same and pass appropriate orders, on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks thereafter.

4. Accordingly, this writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
