... Respondents

Writ petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying for a Writ of Certiorarified Mandamus to call for the records of the first respondent relating to order No.R.12011/02/2010-EP(IM-1) dated 17.07.2012 passed by the first respondent and to quash the same insofar as admission to first year B.A.M.S Course at the Rajiv Gandhi Ayurveda College and Hospital, Mahe for the year 2012-13 and direct the first respondent to grant permission to the petitioner college to admit students to B.A.M.S course for the academic year 2012-13

For Petitioner : Mr.B. Nambiselvam

For respondents : Mr.V. Venkatesan

ORDER

Seeking quashment of the order No. R.12011/02/2010-EP(IM-1) dated 17.07.2012 passed by the first respondent and also seeking admission to first year B.A.M.S Course at the Rajiv Gandhi Ayurveda College and Hospital, Mahe for the year 2012-13, the petitioner has filed the present writ petition.

2. When the matter is taken up for hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner fairly submits that since the relief sought for by the petitioner is related to academic year 2012-2013, the writ petition has become infructuous and nothing survives for adjudication in this matter.

3. Recording the same, the writ petition is disposed of as having become infructuous. No costs. Consequently, connected Mps are closed.
