The learned counsel, appearing on behalf of the writ petitioner, states that during the pendency of the writ petition, the impugned charge memo issued to the writ petitioner had been withdrawn by the respondents. Thus, the writ petition needs no further consideration.

2. The learned counsel, appearing on behalf of the third respondent, states that a charge memo was withdrawn on the ground of jurisdiction and therefore, the competent authority may be permitted to proceed with the charge memo in accordance with law. It is needless to state that if the impugned charge memo has been withdrawn based on the point of jurisdiction, then the competent authority is at liberty to proceed in accordance with law.

3. With these observations, the writ petition stands closed. However, there shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is also closed.
