3. Aggrieved against the same, the petitioners have preferred this appeal along with the petition for suspension of sentence.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that there are several infirmities and inconsistencies found in the prosecution case. Further the petitioners have paid the fine amount on 23.10.2018 and sentence of the petitioners are suspended till 23.11.2018. He would further submit that the trial Court erred in believing the evidences of the witnesses. Further he would submit that it will take some considerable time for the appeal to be listed for final hearing and pray for suspension of sentence.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for respondent opposed to grant suspension of sentence stating that the petitioners have not given cogent and convincing reason for suspension of sentence and that the trial Court has rightly convicted the petitioners.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels on either side and that there are arguable points involved in the appeal and that it would take sometime for final hearing of the appeal. I am inclined to suspend the substantive sentence of imprisonment alone.
