This petition has been filed challenging the order passed by the Court below dismissing the application filed by the petitioner for relaxation of the condition.

2. The respondent police had registered an FIR against this petitioner for the offences under Sections 294(b), 392 and 506(ii) IPC. The petitioner was remanded to judicial custody. Thereafter, he filed an application for bail and the bail was granted on condition that the petitioner will appear before the respondent police daily at 10.30 am until further orders.

3. The petitioner was complying with the conditions from 13.11.2018 upto 18.11.2018. Thereafter, he filed a petition for relaxation of the condition on the ground that the petitioner is a daily labour and he is the sole breadwinner and therefore, it is not possible for the petitioner to come and appear before the respondent police daily. The Court below has dismissed the relaxation petition filed by the petitioner. Aggrieved by the same, the Criminal Original Petition is filed.

4. Considering the nature of allegations made against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to interfere with the order passed by the Court below.

5. The condition imposed by the Court below is modified to the extent that the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police once in a month on the first working day at 10.30 a.m. and the petitioner shall also appear before the respondent police as and when required by them.

6. This Criminal Original Petition is disposed of with the above direction.
