Though vacate stay petition has been filed, when the vacate stay petition is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the writ petitioner would submit that before the Enquiry Officer, the enquiry proceedings is going on and considerable progress has been made in the enquiry proceedings and it is posted tomorrow (21.04.2018) at the final stage of the examination of witnesses and within a shorter period, the enquiry would be over and the result would be given as to whether the petitioner is guilty or not.

2. However, the learned counsel for the respondent/vacate stay petitioner submitted that though he was suspended on 17.10.2017, the writ petitioner Management has not paid the subsistence allowance to the employee/second respondent so far.

3. Though this complaint made by the second respondent is disputed by the learned counsel for the writ petitioner, this Court is of the view that if the subsistence allowance is not paid to the 2nd respondent so far, the same shall be paid by the writ petitioner immediately.

4. Hence, there shall be a direction to the writ petitioner to pay the subsistence allowance to the second respondent, if it is not already paid, immediately, within one week from today.

5. Let the second respondent cooperate for early completion of the enquiry and once such enquiry is over, the second respondent will be in a position to know, where he stands and accordingly, the issue raised herein can be resolved in the interest of both parties and a further direction is issued that the enquiry already in progress shall be completed within a period of two months from today and it is made clear that the 2nd respondent shall cooperate with the Enquiry Officer for such early completion of the enquiry.

6. With these directions, the vacate stay petition is disposed of. The stay granted already is made absolute. The main writ petition be listed for final hearing during the first week of July 2018.
