The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b) & 307 IPC in Crime No.904 of 2017 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that during the time while grossing the cattle, one of the cattle entered into the land of the de facto complainant and hence, a wordy quarrel arose between them, thereby the petitioner abused the de facto complainant in filthy language and also threatened him with dire consequences.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he is no way connected with the offences, and pleads for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the investigation is still pending.

5.The submissions made by the learned counsel on either side are considered. This case has been registered for the offences punishable under Section 294(b) & 307 IPC. During the time of alleged occurrence, the petitioner assaulted the de facto complainant by using wooden log. As of now, the de facto complainant has been discharged from the hospital after completing the treatment. Accordingly, custodial interrogation is not necessary for completing the investigation.

6. Taking all the above said aspects into consideration and having regard to the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(ii) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

(iii) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(iv) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner shall stand automatically cancelled and the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
