The petitioner/Accused No.1, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 448, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC., in Crime No.44 of 2018, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 20.02.2018, the petitioner along with other accused unlawfully entered into the shop of the defacto complainant and abused him by using filthy language. Hence, the case has been registered for the above said incident.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent on instructions, would submit that during the time of occurrence, nobody was injured. According to the prosecution, the investigation is in progress.

Further except the offence under Section 506(ii) of IPC., all other petition mentioned offences are bailable in nature. Hence, custodial interrogation may not be necessary for completing the investigation. Therefore, considering the above facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
