3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are in judicial custody from 01.03.2018. Hence, he prays for bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the State submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the investigation of the case is under progress.

5. The submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side are considered.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that the petitioners are in judicial custody from 01.03.2018, this Court came to conclusion that further detention is not necessary for completing the investigation.
