ORDER

Heard Mrs.S.Prabha, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr.K.Suyambulinga Bharathi, learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent.

2.This revision case has been filed against the order passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti, in Crl.M.P.No.158 of 2018, dated 19.01.2018, dismissing the petition under Section 451 of Cr.P.C. for returning of Tipper Lorry bearing Registration No.TN 58 AE 4357.

3.The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police has registered a case in Crime No.377 of 2017 under Sections 379, 353, 307 I.P.C. r/w. 21(v) of Tamil Nadu Mines and Minerals Regulation Act, 1957 and that the Tipper Lorry was seized by the police are being used in commission of offence of sand theft and that the petition filed before the Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti, for returning the property, was dismissed on 19.01.2018.

4. On the side of the petitioner, it is stated that if the Tipper Lorry is in the custody of the police, the value of the vehicle will be deteriorate, since the vehicle was parked in the open place of the police station subjected to sunlight and raining. It is further stated that the petitioner is the owner of the property and the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that the property involved in criminal offences cannot be kept ideal for more than 15 days. It is stated that two vehicles are seized by the police under the same Crime No and the petition filed by the petitioner was dismissed on the ground that the petitioner is having previous cases also. There cannot be any such stigma with relating to a vehicle and only with the motive, the police filed false case against the petitioner. There is no dispute regarding the ownership of the vehicle and prayed the vehicle to be returned to the petitioner.

5. On the side of the respondent, it is stated that two vehicles involved in sand theft and a case was registered in Crime No.377 of 2017 under Sections 379, 353, 307 I.P.C. r/w. 21(v) of Tamil Nadu Mines and Minerals Regulation Act, 1957. It is further stated that the petitioner involved in similar kind of offences and previous cases in Kadupatti Police Station in Crime Nos.94/2014, 186/2016, 271/2016, 203/2017 and 272/2017 are filed against the petitioner and it is stated that if the vehicle is returned back to the petitioner, he will again indulge in similar type of offence.

6. Records Perused.

7. The petitioner has not filed any documentary proof that he is the owner of the vehicle. Moreover, the petitioner has not denied the fact that previous cases of similar nature were filed against him. As per the version of the respondent investigation is still pending. In this circumstances, there is no sufficient reason to interfere with the order of the lower Court. Hence, this Criminal Revision Case is dismissed.
