PRAYER: The petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the records relating to the impugned order of Detention made in Detention Order No.10/2018 dated 19.02.2018 on the file of the District Collector and District Magistrate, Dindigul District, Dindigul the second respondent herein, branding the detenu by name Murugesan S/o.Rajamani Nadar aged about 54 years, as 'Bootlegger' who is now confined in Central Prison, Madurai, Madurai District and quash the impugned order of detention and set him at liberty by producing him before this Court.

For Petitioner : Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar
For Respondents : Mr.V.Neelakandan
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by C.T.SELVAM, J.)

The petitioner is the detenu herein, viz., Murugesan S/o.Rajamani Nadar, aged 54 years. The detenu has been detained by order in Detention Order No.10/2018 dated 19.02.2018, holding him to be a "Bootlegger", as contemplated under 2(b) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

5. The Detention Order in question was passed on 19.02.2018. The petitioner made a representation dated 01.03.2018. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 06.03.2018. The remarks were duly received on 12.03.2018. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the representation on 19.03.2018.

6. It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a delay of four days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority and thereafter, there was again a delay of four days in considering the representation.

7. In Rekha Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, [2011 (5) SCC 244], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

8. In Sumaiya Vs. The Secretary to Government, [2007 (2) MWN (Cr.) 145], a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of eight days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal. 10. In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority in considering the representation. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

11. In the result, the Detention Order, passed by the second respondent, in his proceedings in Detention Order No.10/2018 dated 19.02.2018, is quashed. The detenu, namely, Murugesan S/o.Rajamani Nadar, is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if his detention is not required in connection with any other case.

12. In the upshot, we allow the Habeas Corpus Petition.
