CrI.O.P (MD) No.23926 of 2016

N. ANAND VENKATESH, J.

The parties are present before this Court today (01.10.2018). This Court enquired the parties in order to ascertain whether the parties will be able to join together and live a peaceful matrimonial life. On examination of the parties, it is seen that the parties are not able to reconcile. There is no meeting point in order to start another mediation process.

2.It is seen that the petitioner was facing investigation in Crime No.2 of 2016, before the respondent police and also proceedings in D.V.O.P.No.58 of 2016, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Additional Mahila Court, Madurai.

3.CrI.O.P.(MD).No.23926 of 2016 was filed before this Court, challenging the F.I.R, in Crime No.2 of 2016. During the pendency of this Criminal Original Petition, the parties entered into a compromise and based on the compromise, an order was passed by this Court on 02.01.2017, quashing the proceedings. Immediately, thereafter, on 03.04.2017, the petitioner has filed O.S.No.8 of 2017 before the Family Court, Salem, seeking for dissolution the marriage with the respondent. At that point of time, the present petition was filed before this Court with a prayer to re-call the order dated 02.01.2017, on the ground that the petitioner made the wife to withdraw the proceedings by making her believe that the petitioner is going to live with her. Thereafter, the suit was filed to dissolve the marriage. Therefore, the petitioner in this petition has taken a stand that the petitioner was misled to
